

LOOK OUT FOR YOUR GATES THIS EVENING

Hallowe'en Franks Are Scheduled Tonight—Police Issue Usual Warning To Cover the Situation.

As Hallowe'en comes on Sunday this year it will be observed more this evening and the youths of the city have made elaborate plans to frighten the nervous out of their wits by attiring themselves in fantastic costumes representing goblins and devils, and by poking an ugly monster up to the window and emitting horrible sounds.

Pumpkins and corn are at a premium and fortunate indeed is the youngster who has secured a big yellow pumpkin and a good supply of corn. One diverting form of amusement is to hurl a handful of hard corn into the face of the unwary. It is a form of assault and battery that prevails about this time of the year.

It is a time of the year when the good citizen awakens in the morning to find part of his fence missing and the gate hanging at the top of a telephone pole. Of course the police have issued the usual warning and announced that youths who place buggies on tops of barns, and who place an undertaker's sign over the church door will be arrested and punished, and of course the youths regard the warning as a big joke and go on with their impish mischief in high disregard for law and order.

Hallowe'en is spoken of as the vigil of All Saints day, and is supposed to be the time of all other times when supernatural influences prevail, hence the appearance of goblins and devils. In addition to the merry-making for youths only, many parties are arranged and several will be held in this city tonight.

COAL LAND DECISIONS.

Four decisions have been made by the register and receiver of the local land office involving coal lands in Emery county and also two homestead entries. In the case of Joseph Olsen and Mary Anderson, who made homestead entries in township 22 south,

In the case of the government against the State of Utah, involving section 2, township 15 south, range 6 east, south of Winter Quarters in Emery county, the decision was in favor of the United States on the ground that the land was known to be valuable for coal prior to statehood.

The case of Rufus C. Hill vs. the State of Utah was decided in favor of Hill. It involved a homestead entry in township 15 south, range 6 east. Hill had filed a coal-cash application for the land and the state had selected it.

SHOT TRYING TO ESCAPE.

Steve Chatchas Attempts to Break Away From Officer Nelson.

While running away from Special Officer Charles Nelson, employed at the Boston Consolidated mine at Bingham, Friday morning, Steve Chatchas was shot through the thigh and abdomen and is now in a dangerous condition at St. Mark hospital. Nelson had placed three men under arrest for stealing coal, and as he was marching the fellows to jail, Chatchas broke away and started to run. Nelson called upon the man to stop and when he failed to do so the officer drew his revolver and fired. The man fell to the ground badly wounded. He was brought to Salt Lake as soon as possible and taken to the hospital. The man has fair chances of recovery.

HOTEL THIEVES SECURE LOOT.

Some time Friday night thieves entered the room of J. H. McIntyre, who rooms at the Hampton house, 140 west South Temple, and stole a suit of clothes, an overcoat and a safety razor. Fairbanks, the local artist, will be pleased to learn that he, associated with his sons, has engaged in a business that will provide an art room in which not only the original work of Utah artists, but copies of the masters both in painting and modelling will be on exhibition. Under the title of Fairbanks Art & Decorating company Mr. Fairbanks is now occupying the quarters at 70 east Third street. Arrangements have been made with the Utah artists for the exhibition of their work, and like arrangements have been made with eastern artists as well. A number of pictures have been hung already and the collection will be added to daily, with the intention of frequent changes in the exhibit. A feature of the art exhibit will be the reproductions of the old masters.

SLUGGED AND ROBBED.

Two Mexicans Waylay A. Cruz, Securing $100—Left Him Unconscious.

Friday midnight two men, supposed to be Mexicans, waylaid, slugged and robbed A. Cruz of $100 at the corner of Third South and State streets. The man was rendered unconscious and after robbing their victim the men escaped. Cruz was found by a patrolman and taken to police headquarters where his injuries were attended to.

The robbers failed to get about $20 which Cruz had scattered about his clothing. The money was in small change and he had some in his shoes. Some in his socks while pieces of coin were concealed under his hat band.

Early this morning Angus Gonzalez was arrested on suspicion but so far the police have not connected him with the robbery.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32-34 Main street, $2.00 per year.

STEAL WHISKY AND WINE.

Thieves Back Wagon Up to Plum Alley Storehouse and Help Themselves.

Some time Friday night thieves backed up a wagon to a storehouse on Plum alley where William Baer, a saloon man, had a large quantity of stock stored and carted off a barrel of whisky, two or three cases of wine, some gin and a large quantity of cigars.

The place had not been watched and at times, according to the police, the doors have been left open. The police claim they have warned Baer to watch the place or he would lose his property. Their prediction came true when thieves boldly entered and hauled off whatever struck their fancy.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

Professor Babcock has selected "Treason of the Wells" as the new drama, which is to be presented by the University Dramatic club in January.

The freshmen Hallowe'en party at the university last night was a huge success. There was a large attendance of freshmen and a number of the faculty. The decorations were in cornucopias and pumpkins, and apples and cider were served in dark corners, making the Hallowe'en spirit impressive.

Dr. Paden addressed the students at the regular chapel exercises yesterday, after which a yell practice was conducted in preparation for the game with the soldiers today.
